ASSAILANT OF WOMAN IS HELD BY GRAND JURY

Only a few hours before the mass meeting at the Hijiou theater last Sunday evening, when leading citizens of this city discussed the sociological problem under the topic "Does Honolulu Care," another crime of rape is alleged to have been committed. The victim is said to be a Hawaiian woman of middle age, the offender a young Hawaiian released only about a month ago from Oahu prison, where he had been incarcerated eighteen months after conviction on the charge of burglary, committed on Maui.

This much is shown in the partial report of the Territorial grand jury, which was placed on secret file last yesterday afternoon and revealed this morning after the accused had been apprehended. Charles Kauwila is the name of the man accused of the latest crime against womanhood in Honolulu, and the information was given by his alleged victim.

According to her story, the man assaulted her early Sunday morning while her husband lay in the same room in a drunken stupor, following a "dago red" jag the night before.

Her cries, finally driving the intruder away, also aroused her foster son, who had been sleeping in a room nearby, and he gave chase and captured Kauwila.

Four other true bills are returned by the grand jury. They charge Watsi Taruya with assault and battery; John La Bona and Joseph Castro with assault with a weapon, and Kim Chong with larceny in the first degree.

Regular meeting of the members of the Hawaii Promotion Committee will be held at the rooms of the Merchants' Association, on Friday, Dec. 6, 1912, at 3:30 o'clock p. m.

Old Question Up Again In Monoa Valley

What's in a name. A good deal, if you happen to live up in Monoa, and the name is the name of a street.

Hence the special meeting of the Monoa Improvement Club called for tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Monoa Tennis Club grounds.

As nearly as can be gathered from the accounts of enthusiastic citizens living in the valley, the imbroglio, as the war correspondents call it, came about when some Monoa residents objected to the renaming of Punahou street and Monoa road. The improvement club some weeks ago secured permission to rename the streets according to wishes of residents of the section, and the name of the upper part of Punahou street was changed so that the full length of this thoroughfare from King street up is now Punahou. Upper and Lower Monoa roads were also changed to Monoa avenue.

The signs, bright and new and conspicuous, were put up before the opposition began to sit up and take notice. Now the said opposition has crystallized into a move to do some more changing, and the special meeting is called tonight to talk the matter over in a neighborly fashion. Club members are asked to leave their guns at home.

SUPERVISOR LOW HAS SURPRISE UP SLEEVE

Supervisor Eben Low still has an ace to play in his little game with Supervisor Harry Murray. It was learned this morning.

Supervisor Murray indulged in Sunday remarks last Monday night, when, at the board meeting, he produced figures as to the unexpended balance in the municipal treasury, declaring with considerable emphasis that Supervisor Low, chairman of the ways and means committee, had been talking through his hat in recent remarks to the effect that the city is about "broke" for his month.

Murray had collected his figures from the auditor's department, and it grieved Supervisor Low exceedingly to learn that while he, too, had collected figures from the auditor's office, his figures did not at all agree with those set forth by Mr. Murray.

With battle in his eye, therefore, the supervisor from Monoa went out on the trail of the real facts about the city treasury. He went through the auditor's office with a noise like a whirlwind, tore through the city clerk's department, invaded the sacred and dusty precincts of the tax office, and ended a long day's work with certain results over which he was able to indulge a machiavellian smile of satisfaction this morning.

Briefly speaking, the supervisor from the third promises that when he springs his figures on the board, he will produce a sensation twice as large as Murray's. Incidentally, he declares that there has been some loose work in the auditor's office.

"Why, do you know, I found that through carelessness in copying resolutions, they had slipped up on items amounting to over a thousand dollars," he said this morning. "The treasury is over a thousand dollars to the good by the figures I hunted out yesterday. I secured them by comparing resolutions passed by the board with those copied in the auditor's office."

Mr. Low said this morning that there's no glory in public office here any way. "This supervisory scheme of governing the city is a farce—a mere farce. No wonder they talk about a commission government," he commented.

PROSSER SETS WORLD'S RECORD

One of the returning passengers on the Honokulan yesterday was M. F. Prosser, of the local law firm of Kinney, Prosser, Anderson and Marx, who has been in San Francisco and Los Angeles during the past month on a business trip. He expected to meet Attorney W. A. Kinney, in San Francisco, but the latter left for New York shortly after his arrival from Honolulu.

During an interview with Mr. Prosser this morning in regard to the political situation on the mainland, he said: "My observations of the political situation on the coast, and principally in California, were few and far between. I was only there a little over a week and I scarcely had time to take any notice of the matter; in fact, I don't believe that I was approached on the subject of politics once during my short stay."

WOMEN BRAVE

ty would forbid the women hearing, unless they were compelled to be present as witnesses. None of the ladies left the courtroom, however.

Worst of Its Kind.

The case now being heard is one of the worst of its kind, according to the evidence of the prosecution. Although the defendant can be tried on only one charge at a time, it is alleged that Hee Park assaulted two girls, about the same age, and that his crime against them had been committed not only once, but many times.

The two children had gone to his little shop, on Liliha street, where, by giving them small coins, the defendant is said to have induced them to submit to his atrocities. Because they wanted the money to spend, they returned time after time to his place. Both the child who appears as prosecuting witness in the present case, and her companion on the visits to the Chinese store, were present this morning, as was also Dr. Sinclair, to whom they were taken for medical examination after the alleged crime was discovered.

Hee Park was indicted by the Territorial grand jury October 10, the specific date of his crime being named as September 25. He was arraigned October 14 and entered a plea of not guilty, the court then appointing Attorney S. F. Chillingworth to represent the defendant as counsel.

fornia and Nevada partook of Sacramento's first "Big Goose Stew," which promises to become an annual event. The Rincon road which is to follow the coast from one end of California to the other was opened with a great celebration at Santa Barbara. Over 20,000 people were present at the festivities and barbecue.

WANTS $10,000 TO PAY FOR THE LOST KLIKITAT

Ten thousand dollars damages for the loss of the barkentine Klikitat, which was wrecked on the east coast of Hawaii November 9, is asked by the owners, Pope & Talbot, in a damage suit filed against the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company before Federal Judge Dole in admiralty court. Attorney Frank E. Thompson, proctor for the libellants, filed the suit yesterday afternoon and the papers were served on President Kennedy, of the Inter-Island, summoning him to appear in court with a answer on December 13.

The libellants recite that the wreck was due to the negligence of the Inter-Island's men in charge of the tugboat Ke Au Hou, which had been employed, for a $60 fee, to tow the Klikitat out of Hilo Harbor to a point of safety on the high seas. They assert that, failing to live up to its part of the contract, the Ke Au Hou dropped the tow line at a point where the barkentine was only half a mile offshore, leaving her to drift upon the rocks. They assert that even after the Klikitat's imminent danger was discovered the tugboat and its crew might have saved her by throwing another line to the drifting vessel, but failed to do so. The value of the ship is estimated at $10,000, and she is declared to be a total loss.

The American schooner Repeat, thirty-nine days from Willapa Harbor, was sighted at noon today and the vessel is expected to be towed into port this afternoon. The Repeat is a slow three-master and has never been credited with making very fast time across the Pacific with her large cargoes of lumber piled high on deck.
